Happy College Month!!

Congratulations to this week's Falcons of the Week, Luka Riegle, Demian Kuhn, Ricky Kangas, Jazmin Kujawa. Please stop in the office to pick up your shirt, lunch, popcorn and slushy pass from Mrs. Rice.

No popcorn this week due to the $\frac{1}{2}$ day.

Don't forget Halloween costume contest tomorrow, complete rules and guidelines for prizes in advisory today.

Attention all Seniors going into the medical field after high school: The Leslie Jameson Scholarship is now available. See Ms. Hofer for a paper application and instructions.

Students - just a reminder that cell phones are to be in your locker and powered off from 7:25am until 2:19pm. If your phone is in your pocket, you are in violation of the technology policy and will be asked to turn your phone into the office.

We are in need of volunteers for the concession stand Friday night during the playoff football game. You will need to be there at 6pm at the latest. NHS current and new members, who are being inducted on Nov. 10, you can use this for your NHS hours. If you are not in NHS, we still encourage you to volunteer. We are hoping to be able to staff the concession stand so that parents can watch their child play in the game. Please see Mrs. Rexford to sign up ASAP.

Are you interested in volunteering for the West Branch Candy Cane Lane Festival? They are in need of volunteers for the following, Hot Cocoa Tents, Costumes, 5K flaggers and Reindeer Games. There will be a volunteer meeting on November 9, 2025, 2pm at Buck's Banquet Room.

The Varsity Volleyball team has had a fun and exciting season so far and they have their goals set to win Districts next week! Districts will be in Cheboygan and we would like to invite anyone who would like to travel on a spectator bus for the district final game, Thursday the 6th, to sign up in the athletic office. Seats are limited so sign up early! The volleyball program will provide G's pizza on the way to the game for those riding the bus. We need our hype squad to join us to cheer them on to victory!

The Department of Natural Resources is coming to Ogemaw Heights on Thursday, Oct 30th at 8:30 in the library to talk about some awesome career opportunities — like park ranger, wildlife biologist, environmental scientist, and forest technician (just to name a few!). You'll hear directly from a DNR professional about what they do, how they got started, and how you can turn your love of nature into a rewarding career. Don't miss this chance to plan your path toward a greener future! See Ms. Webb the Career Navigator if you have any questions!

Attention Seniors- just a reminder that senior pictures should be emailed to Mr. A. Miller. For sizing and regulations please refer to your senior information pamphlet.

Thespian Festival Participants - you have a payment of $150 due tomorrow, Thursday, October 30.

Winter Sports are starting soon! Make sure you have an up to date physical for the 2025/2026 School year and Sign up (not during class time) in the Athletic Office.

Have you always thought about auditioning for a musical but have been too nervous to try? Would you like to improve your vocal music ability? Would you like to meet some new friends and try an activity that looks great on your college application? The OHHS Theatrical Troupe will be having some pre-audition musical theatre workshops coming up in October. Join us at 1:15 tomorrow, Thursday, October 30 to get a headstart and feel more confident auditioning in December!

The Falcon Girls' Swim Team continued its reign of dominance, defeating the Caro Tigers last night, 112-67! Several swimmers tried different events last night and demonstrated their versatility, and every swimmer on the team contributed to our point total. First-place finishers for the Falcons were Oryana Dings, Chloe Nelson, Sadie Stephens, Monika Hupcik, Kaitlyn Hines, Kadie Pavelek, and Kaylee Biermann. The Falcons' next and last dual meet is AT HOME tomorrow at 6:00PM. Free admission, so come to the meet, support your favorite chlorinated athlete, and celebrate our five graduating seniors!
