Falcons, December is all about being responsible. We have so many things to keep track of and obligations to fulfill. Some of us are better at that than others. When doing your duties, ask yourself "Am I doing this quickly just to get it done? Or am I doing this well to make sure it is right?" If you take pride in doing honest work, then our word of the week is for you: Scrupulous. Scrupulous can be used to describe a person with high, moral standards. It is when a person approaches situations with honesty and integrity. It can also be used to describe someone's approach as accurate and precise. Here it is in a sentence: "Everyone feels confident dealing with Ms. Hupcik because she is a scrupulous businesswoman. You can always trust her to put forth honest information when it comes to spending and saving money." See the display case near the front office for more information about our word of the week.
